

Denison Local Affairs.

Read the new locals this week. Are you keeping run of the continued story? Judge Conner is holding court in Cass county this week.

The first snow storm of the season came on Tuesday, the 16th. Mr. L. Cornwell and wife went in to Chicago on Monday noon.

Teachers should remember the convention at Deloit to-morrow. Get ready to attend the firemen's fair and ball next Wednesday and Thursday.

Rev. Banker is enjoying a visit from his mother, who came out from New York State to see him.

Mr. Theo. Walker is assisting in the auditor's office, to make up the tax books for the coming year.

There will be services at the Episcopal Church next Sabbath evening. The Sabbath school convenes at three o'clock.

We publish all the proceedings of the board of supervisors at the recent session. Next week will appear the claims allowed by the auditor between sessions.

Mr. S. M. Neeley and wife have returned from Clark center, Dakota. Mr. Wallace, Mrs. Neeley's brother, was very sick with typhoid fever and pneumonia but is much better now.

Mr. J. W. Steele has been in Denison this week, the guest of Mr. Fred Sherrard, who is contemplating buying the property of Mr. Steele, just east of the white school house. Mr. Steele is now station agent at Louisville, Neb., on the B. & M. road.

Mr. O. C. Johnson stopped over in Denison for two days this week. He is dealing in real estate at Omaha. In the paper is found an advertisement for his business. Any of our citizens wishing business transacted in Omaha should write him.

Monday being a pleasant day, Mr. A. J. Bond went out to the east side of the county to sell an organ. The storm overtook him, so he had to stop at West Side, from which town he telephoned to his family that he should be home when the roads would permit.

We regret to note in the papers that on Monday last Will. Adams, the hotel runner at Carroll, was run over by the cars, so crushing one of his limbs that amputation is deemed necessary. Will. is well known here, and words of regret are in the mouth of all his friends.

Geo. Richardson, of West Side, and his father were visitors at Denison on Monday. The latter gentleman is in the drug business at Blairtown. He may be a little partial, but yet he thinks that George is about the best posted druggist in the State. Well, he does bear a good reputation in that line.

Mrs. T. B. Faulkner, mother of Mrs. ... met with a painful accident on Sabbath morning. When on the high walk in front of the Methodist church, her ankle turned and she fell off to the road below. She was considerably shaken up by the fall, and the weak ankle has given her much pain.

Mr. C. H. Trask was in town the fore part of the week. He is working on Mr. Kridler's farm in Monona county, with his post office at Dunlap. We were pleased to learn that the past season has been a prosperous one with him, and that he is now in comfortable circumstances, with good prospects for the future.

Mr. E. M. Hoff is to have an assistant in his photograph gallery for a time. Miss Villa Zimmermann from Carroll, a lady of experience in the business, arrived on Monday afternoon to fill that position. She will make her home with Mr. and Mrs. Hoff. Mr. Hoff will begin a holiday advertisement next week.

We have before us the regulations and course of study of the LeMars schools, prepared by Prof. F. B. Cooper, superintendent, who was conductor of the Normal last year. It is a book of 48 pages, well gotten up, and shows much thought. We may put some of his suggestions in the Teachers' Column during the coming months.

Mr. Henry Schluter will shortly move to town again, having rented the house recently vacated by Mr. W. A. McHenry. Owing to the fact that his house recently burned down, Mr. Dethmann was unable to continue business, in the building rented from Mr. Schluter, and the latter gentleman will again engage in business at his old stand. He will put in stock of fancy groceries, and run a business similar to that conducted by Mr. N. Baggs. Mr. Schluter has many acquaintances who will be pleased to see him in business again.

All kinds of plain sewing done by Mrs. Wilkinson in rooms back of Williams' meat market.

Why is it? That J. P. Miller & Co. sell more goods than any other two establishments in the county? It is because they sell cheaper. Why is it that they do so? It is because we buy direct from factories, thereby avoiding the commission of the jobbers.

We buy in larger quantities and get better terms, save considerable in freights and get larger discounts by paying cash. It is because we do a very limited credit business and do not make our cash customers pay our dead bent accounts. It is because we give our customers the benefit of all these advantages and do a strictly honest business.

The best proof that the above statements are correct, is shown by the large patronage of the past, for which we thank the public most heartily, and we shall endeavor in the future to even offer greater inducements to the public to make it their interest to buy of us.

CANING AFFAIR.

Judge Conner Neatly Canned by the Audubon County Bar.

Upon the adjournment of court for dinner to-day (Thursday Nov. 11), Sheriff Mallory stepped forward and in his unique way arrested judge, jury and every body else in the court room, where upon M. Nichols arose and nominated H. F. Andrews as chairman of the meeting who upon being elected stated that the object of the meeting was to present Judge Conner with some token of respect from the Audubon bar.

Mr. M. Nichols was then called upon and in his usual happy manner, presented the Judge with an elegant gold headed cane. Judge Conner was taken completely by surprise, but though somewhat embarrassed, replied in a few well chosen remarks. Appropriate resolutions were then adopted when the meeting adjourned.

There is a feeling of deep regret throughout this part of the old district that Judge Conner is to sever his connection with us, but we sincerely hope that success awaits him in his new field of labor.

THE CLUB DANCE.

Notwithstanding that Tuesday night was the worst that we had experienced this season, up to that time, about eighteen couples were in attendance at the club dance in the hall. The North-western Band furnished the music and gave better satisfaction than ever. Those who attended report a very fine time; indeed they deserved it after wading through drifts, in the face of a strong wind. There will be a number of dances given during the winter. Among those noted as being in attendance on Tuesday night were: Messrs. B. F. Philbrook and H. L. McElroy, of Dunlap, D. D. Daily, Henry Seemann, W. H. Jagger, Geo. Cornwell, C. F. Kuehnle, C. Clement, E. A. and Frank Stone, Watson Wheeler, R. E. Williams, J. A. Bieber, W. A. Wells, Chas. Kemming, L. A. Marshall, Albert Chapin and W. J. McAhren, and Misses Mary Ann, Kate and Mattie Molony, Dora Leptine and Christie Bieber, and Mesdames E. A. Stone, W. H. Jagger, R. E. Williams, L. A. Marshall and J. A. Bieber. Misses Ferron and Moore, from Dunlap, were also in attendance.

FARMER'S NATIONAL ALLIANCE.

CHICAGO, Nov. 11.—The annual convention of the Farmers National Alliance began here to-day. About two hundred delegates, representing local assemblies in fifteen states, were present. A. J. Streeter, president of the alliance, made a lengthy address, in which he set forth the evils from which farmers as a class are suffering, and urged the necessity of organization against encroaching monopolies. He declared that the evils were due in a large measure to railroad monopoly, and advocated governmental control of all railroads. The secretary's report showed that the alliance, which was organized in 1880, had now a total membership of five hundred thousand, and was in a good financial condition. Captain N. A. Gray, of Rantouille, Ill., read a paper on the Grain Buyers' union, in which he charged that the grain buyers, by forming an organization in all small towns, fixed their own price and controlled the grain market, much to the detriment of the farmer. He recommended that producers organize to defeat the combination. A committee consisting of James Smith, of Minnesota; Ebner Weter, of Wisconsin; and L. D. Whiting and Milton George, of Illinois, was appointed to draft a series of resolutions.

A FINE ROOM.

Our Denison dentist, Dr. T. W. Garber, has recently refitted his office in the McHenry Bank. The floor has a fine Brussels carpet, the walls handsome paper, and the room generally many adornments, which add greatly to the appearance. The Doctor has also a new dental chair, which is complete in every detail, by the aid of which he can work with much more rapidity and ease. Mr. Garber is found at his office during business hours. By giving a harmless gas, teeth can be extracted without pain. Dr. Garber gives good satisfaction as a dentist, and our people have no excuse for going with unfiled teeth or none at all, when he is at hand ready to do their work at reasonable prices.

CLEVELAND SURRENDERS.

The president suspended two district attorneys for violation of his order relating to making stump speeches in the late campaign. One of the warning examples was a republican in Western Pennsylvania, while the other was M. E. Benton, of Missouri. The president had no difficulty in disposing of the offensive partizan in Pennsylvania, nor would he have had if a Northern Democrat had been bounced—but when Cleveland attacked a Confederate he was compelled to swallow his own words. Senator Vest just cursed the president to his face—and when Cleveland asked the Senator whether Benton would take another office, Vest replied "Restoration or nothing." Cleveland now makes a humble apology to Benton and restores him to office. Hypocrisy and cowardice are the leading characteristics of Cleveland—and the country is finding him out very rapidly.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

Governor Larrabee, in appointing Thursday, November 25th, as the Day of Public Thanksgiving, briefly remarks:

"Request all to refrain on that day from unnecessary labor, and at their firesides or places of worship to return thanks to Almighty God for the manifold blessings which we enjoy, and invoke the continuance of his favors. Let the day be devoted to good works, and especially let the sick, the needy and the afflicted be remembered by deeds of kindness and charity."

Though the above is unusually brief, it is nevertheless comprehensive, and we hope our farmers will remember that on Thanksgiving Day our business houses and the post office are closed the greater part of the day, so as to give their employees a few hours of needful rest. Republicans have cause to rejoice that they carried the State by quite 20,000 majority, while our Democratic friends ought surely to be thankful that they live in Crawford county, one of the very few counties in the interior of the State which gave a democratic majority. Too true it is that turkeys usually roost too high for editors; but a moderate degree of thankfulness can be evoked on a chicken; and if times are not as bright as men could wish, they can surely be thankful that they are no worse.

CAPTAIN M. SMITH.

We are informed that Captain M. Smith has purchased the Abstract Books of P. J. McMahon & Co. of Council Bluffs. He has already taken possession and will remove to Council Bluffs as soon as his term of office expires. In connection with the abstract business, he will also do a general real estate, loan and insurance business.

Mr. Smith, who was our county recorder for three consecutive terms, is a business man of large and varied experience. His record as an official has been most excellent, and his defeat at the last election is specially deplorable in that it has deprived Denison of an excellent and worthy citizen.

After having carried Crawford county three times against an adverse political majority of upwards of 300, he was defeated by 149—running over two hundred votes ahead of his ticket in the county, and receiving 133 majority in Denison township—which was quite two votes to his opponent's one vote. The entire business community regrets his defeat and his departure. But Capt. Smith owes a duty to his family and since no opening presented itself to him in Denison we cannot question the propriety of his removal to a larger field of enterprise. If perfect integrity, strict attention to business, good capacity and long training and experience can command success, Captain Smith is not too old to become one of the leading business men of Council Bluffs. He has our most hearty wishes for his prosperity and success.

HOW MONEY CAN BE SENT TO EUROPE.

By a new arrangement the American Express Company will undertake to issue money orders, payable in England, Ireland, Scotland, France, Norway, Denmark, Germany, Sweden, Holland, Belgium and Italy. Citizens of the county can thus send money to any of these countries with absolute safety. The rates are not high. Orders can be obtained at the express office in Denison, or any in the county, on the N. W. road.

HELP TO BUY A NEW BELL BY GOING TO THE DREMEN'S FAIR.

Let there be a large attendance at the hall to-morrow night, when Prof. Meeke the elocutionist will give an entertainment for the benefit of the High school.

Taken from the West Side Dispatch. W. L. Spotswood, who moved from here to Ida Grove, has now gone to Odebolt to engage in the hotel business there. He evidently believes in the old adage, a rolling stone gathers no moss.

James Smith and family have moved to South Omaha, their goods being shipped last Saturday. There is now an opening here for a good barber, who if he be the right kind, can command a good business.

The gap in the telephone line between Arcadia and Dunlap, was completed last Thursday evening. There are now thirty towns in direct communication. In a few weeks the line will be completed to Boone, and then communication will be possible to Des Moines, and from there to Illinois.

Patrick Crowe, Sr., came up from South Omaha Tuesday evening. He says hundreds of people are living in tents there, not being able to get houses, who must have suffered terribly during the late storm. Houses are being put up as fast as possible, but the demand far exceeds the supply.

We are in receipt of No. 1, Vol. 1 of the Elba (Neb.) Graphic, published by Will A. Grow. It's an eight column folio, and is well filled with local news and has a good showing of advertisements. Will is a good newspaper man, and we wish him success in his new field of labor. The many friends he made here while editor of the DISPATCH will be pleased to learn of his new venture.

On Wednesday morning the train men here received orders not to take engines out of the round house until they received orders. The snow storm had raged all night with unabated fury and in the morning it still continued, the wind having whirled around into the northwest. Cars and side tracks were completely blocked and not a wheel could be moved. The morning express went through about on time with two engines and a snow plow.

One of the snow plows on Wednesday struck a section man, between Carroll and Gliddon, throwing him to the fence, breaking one of his legs and otherwise injuring him. The men were out on the track but the snow blew so that the engineer could not see but a short distance ahead, and did not see the man until right onto them. For the same reason, probably, the man didn't see the engine until too late to get out of the way. He was taken to Carroll and placed under the care of a doctor.

On Saturday evening of last week occurred the wedding reception of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Gulick, at their residence. The following is a list of the guests present: Mr. and Mrs. Richardson, Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gulick and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Gulick, of Denison, Mrs. Curtis and two sons, of Warsaw, Wis., Mr. and Mrs. A. Schuyler, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Fellingham, Mrs. Wilber Becker and two daughters, Eugene Wagner, Miss Clara and Clyde Harris, Miss Emma Becker, of Mead, Neb. A bountiful repast was served to the guests, the table being loaded down with the choicest viands of the season. The evening was pleasantly enjoyed by all and hearty congratulations and good wishes extended to the newly married couple.

On Monday morning, James McClure, F. L. Boynton, Chris Kracht, and Grant Inmann, of this place, and Ed. McCracken, of Vail, went down to Audubon county after some property that Mr. C. W. Payne, of this place, held a bill of sale on belonging to Patrick Concannon. An attempt had been made once before to get the property, but Concannon had refused to give the property up, and said they could only take it after passing over his dead body. This time the officers went in force prepared to bring the property. Later developments show they missed connections in some manner, for about the first thing we heard here on Tuesday morning was that the outfit had been arrested, and the boys were skirmishing around after bonds. The storm came on and at this writing (Wednesday afternoon) they are snowed under and so are the particulars, and whether they are toasting their shins before a hotel fire smoking ten cent cigars, or cooling their heels in the calaboose and puffing at cob pipes, we know not, but probably they are doing the former. Mr. Payne on receiving news of the hospitality (?) they had met with, accompanied by W. W. Boynton, started to their relief Tuesday afternoon, but only got to Carroll and could go no further on account of the storm. Thus the boys were left to the tender mercies of the "Audubonites" until they can be dug out of the snow banks. We have dispatched a porter to the scene of action who will cable the full particulars for our next issue.
